

There is
a number
in my camera

Story and photographs by Peter

one / 1

One girl at a beach with 1 wish – “I want to fly”.

two / 2

Two boats built with 2 different types of sails are raced for fun.

three / 3

Three boys shoot 3 basketballs at a high hoop.

four / 4

Four masks hide 4 faces.

five / 5

Five princesses wear 5 tiaras.

six / 6

Six purple shirts jump into a pool and make 6 splashes.

seven / 7

Seven explorers with 7 paddles look for a river adventure.

eight / 8

Eight animal puppets perform a play on 8 fingers.

nine / 9

Nine dancers kick 9 legs while practicing a hip hop routine.

ten / 10

Ten painted finger nails are displayed by 10-year-old Jessa.

There is
a number
in my camera

Story and photographs by Peter
Spare Time Fun Centre
March 2007

For children in Uganda
From children in Canada

Another Spare Time staff and I went to Uganda for three weeks in March and April 2007.
Two other staff went in 2009.

Staff on both trips travelled with a team of dentists from Richmond, BC.
We helped at all of the free dental clinics
but spent most of our time with children at the orphanage where we stayed.

IAM Children's Family is a Christian orphanage helping more than 200 children in Kampala, Uganda, East Africa.
Reverend Ponsiano, his wife Susan Lwakatale and their children opened their home to neighboring orphans in 1998.

I wrote two books about Uganda for Spare Time children.
I left four books about Spare Time at the I AM orphanage.